1.) Form:
<form> is used to collect user data.
we use <form> to send user information.
like, name, email, password etc.

2.) input:
<input> is used to take user input.
it is used to allow users to type or select data.
<input type="Text">
input type="password" etc.

3.) <select> creates a dropdown list.
<option> it defines the items inside the dropdown.
we use it to make the user choose one option.

4.) <value> stores the data and sends it to the server.
<input type="text" value="name">

5.) <label> describes what the input field is for.
* It improves accessibility.
<label for="name">Name:</label>

Placeholder:
* shows temporary text inside input
* Text disappears when the user types